

Rev. Wesley Wakefield

“The doctrine that Christ’s righteousness being imputed to us, we need none of our own...is a blow at the root of all holiness. Hereby Christ is ‘stabbed in the house of His friends,’ of those who make the largest profession of loving and honouring Him; the whole design of His death-namely ‘to destroy the works of the devil,’ being overthrown at a stroke. For whenever this doctrine is cordially received, it leaves no place for holiness. It demolishes it from top to bottom; it destroys both root and branch.”

(Works, Vol 10, p366)

A Holy Duty: “Prayer is not an occasional resource for hours of need, nor is it the luxury of rare and beautiful moments. Prayer is a duty I owe to God, an offering of love and devotion that I must bring to Him. Day by day there are mercies for which I ought to thank Him, plans and purposes that I must bring before the Master of my life.”
